The real test is not whether you avoid failure, because you won't. It's whether you let it harden or shame you into inaction, or whether you learn from it; whether you choose to persevere.

SHRI NAVEEN AGARWAL JI

Founder Chairman, Unison Group

(22nd September, 1951 - 23rd February, 2009)

The soul never takes birth and never dies at any time nor does it come into being again when the body is created.

The soul is birthless, eternal, imperishable and timeless and is never destroyed when the body is destroyed.

FOUNDER'S VISION

Unison World School is an edifice of faith. It is the crystallisation of the dream of our Founder Chairman, Late Shri Naveen Agarwal Ji.

He was a great visionary with tremendous personal charisma. He possessed profound wisdom and nobility that always stood the test of time. He pioneered the Unison Group's involvement in education.

He was greatly inspired by the words of Mahatma Gandhi; 'When you educate a boy, you educate an individual, but when you educate a girl you educate a family'.

He sought to bring about holistic development in each student and make her 'Sarva Gunn Sampann' so that she learns to strike a balance between her personal and professional life.

His vision encompassed:

- To make Unison World School, a continuously evolving and learning community of empowered young minds and staff by creating synergy through mutual exchange of ideas and thoughts.
- To create endowed global citizens who think creatively and laterally; beyond the regular and those who are self-motivated and self-directed.
- To impart world class education by providing a balance of academic, aesthetic, artistic and social opportunities thereby encouraging the student to lift her aspirations to the highest level of capabilities and interests.
- To create a safe and supportive environment that involves each student in a wide range of learning experiences.
- To create new benchmarks in the field of value based education that blends modern outlook with a rich value system.

A floral tribute to our FOUNDER FATHER

On 22nd September, 2020, the Birth Anniversary of our visionary Founder Chairman Late Shri Naveen Agarwal Ji, was solemnized by prayers and a floral tribute offered by Ms. Divya Dwivedi, the Principal of UWS, along with the staff and the students of Unison World School.

Sri Naveen Agarwal Ji, our founder father, was born in a middle-class family on 22nd September, 1951 and left for his heavenly abode on 23rd February, 2009.

He was a great visionary with tremendous personal charisma. He possessed profound wisdom and nobility coupled with humility, qualities that have always stood the tests of time. He has sired a lineage that only responds to claims of loyalty for a tradition of education that inspires and empowers all.

He authorized path breaking innovations in the history of technical education in Uttarakhand. Sri Naveen Agarwal Ji stands tall amongst the hills of his hometown Dehradun. He was a living testimony of what an ordinary citizen fuelled by enterprise and driven by determination can achieve in his lifetime.

True men like him are rare. They come gifted with the power and vision to change the destiny of people, to alter the course of academic history of generations to come.

The students of Unison World School strive to uphold the vision of our Founder Chairman. Every year on this day the staff and the students render community service. Following the tradition, they visited a nearby Anganwadi School to paint the classroom walls in the colours of their care and creativity to help the young learners.

Besides this, Unison World School conducted a tie and dye workshop in association with 'Devbhumi Janseva and Sadbhawna Samiti', Kandikhal, Tehri, Garhwal, to help the educated unemployed women of the mountains, apprise them with cottage industry and motivate them for self-employment.

Making tie & dye dresses, scarves, bed sheets, and several other articles were included in the workshop.

From the Principal's Desk

Life – a school which holds lessons for each one of us. Both metaphoric and literal, school is that ecosystem where learning takes place, so it is not an exaggeration if we equate life to a school. Learning on the other hand is not just the academic transaction that takes place in classrooms, rather it is that continuous process of enlightenment that keeps on widening our perspectives and enables growth. Learning is constant and every experience associated with it, adds to, and becomes a part of a learning ecosystem.

The years 2020 and 2021 shall go down in the history of mankind as the years disrupted by the pandemic. They will also be remembered for the rapid pace of tech advancement and how the world adapted to it. We all have witnessed firsthand, how during this time, YouTube recipes and API platforms had become common parlance. The magnitude of this adaptation can be understood by the volume of UPI based digital payments, which grew from a mere 915.2 million users in 2018 to a whopping 22,330.7 million users in the FY-2021.

In the vistas of education, ab initio 2020 was a year more of a trial and error, when all schools were trying to find the best perch for themselves on the online tech platforms. However, the empowerment that came with technology, helped students, the tech natives, to leapfrog the pace of this adaptation, forward to a new normal.

Though initially excited by the new enterprise of online competitions and events, students also soon became exasperated by the monotony of being trapped behind the small LED screens. They broke this monotony by bringing yet new-fangled ideas and concepts to the world of learning. The collective wisdom and zeal of the teachers and their taught gave shape and wings to their imagination, they successfully crafted several flawless initiatives and experiences for fellow students. Taking the levels of their creativity & learning up by several notches.

Along with all the mixed bag of experiences, the Covid era also brought a welcome consciousness, that of the importance of physical school. The realization that though tech can help bridge the gaps of learning – it can never fill-in fully, for actual learning. Learning in real time is a happy experience which is complete and lasting. As Howard Gardner puts it, “Happiness and learning are the ingredients of success.”

This edition of Quintessence is an epitome of all these endeavors successfully executed, learnt, and assimilated by the Unison World School. My best compliments to the assiduous community of Uthenas and their guides for bringing out this treasure. Together you make a quintessential realm.

Best wishes and God bless!

TEACHERS' DAY

Dear teachers,
It was not that long ago,
when we set ourselves to go.
With all our might we ran and ran,
but that was when our journey began.
In every field we try our best,
And long to beat all the rest.
But when it does not go our way,
you come and say to us, "it's ok!"
When we go wrong somewhere,
you talk to us but never glare.
You forgive our every mistake,
and stay up at night for our sake.
When we meet you smile so bright,
that our day ahead goes alright.
On silly jokes when we laugh together,
are the times we will cherish forever.
There are times we don't get along,
but they have never lasted long.
The care you give us each day, in just words we can never portray.

Teachers' Day holds a special place not only in the hearts of the teachers but also of their students. Although online, the students made every effort to express their love for their teachers. Tanvi Lohia

Dear students we are proud of each one of you. Your school grows every time with each one of you grow.

Achievements

- According to a survey for the year 2020, conducted by Education World, the well-known Delhi-based market research and opinion polls agency, I am both pleased and humbled to share that UWS is ranked 3rd among All Girls' Boarding Schools in India and 1st in Uttarakhand.
- The Times School Ranking 2020 has declared UWS as #2 Girls' Residential School in North India.

Engagement

Established in the year 2007, the school is in its 14th year we are humbled and grateful to have full admission and several waitlisted candidates. We hope and pray that we are able to give these students a chance in the years to come.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to all the eminent visitors who graced our school with their benign presence last year for the real time learning and the guidance they gave to our students. Commander Payal Gupta of the Indian Navy was with us who was part of the 6-member crew which circumnavigated around the world in their custom designed INSV Tarini.

Your gracious presence has added great value and endorsement to our efforts.

The pandemic proved to be a huge disrupter, all international and domestic travel had to be curbed. Our international exchange programme also had to be put on hold. Nonetheless, our ever so enthusiastic students have no holds barred and four of our class IX students would be up for a virtual exchange with their counter parts from our exchange partner Rangi Ruru Girls' School, New Zealand, starting the 2nd of November.

Community Service

With the intention of building our Athenas as more empathetic individuals, our school social service committee works enthusiastically with children of three Aanganbadis in the Dehradun district. Our Athenas try and make the lives of these children more meaningful through their efforts. The school has adopted three Angandwadis, where our students involved themselves in the beautification of walls and taught painting to the children.

During the pandemic our school also donated sanitizers, masks, and medical kits to Prem Dham, Dalanwala, and Cheshire Home.

At Women Empowerment and child development department in Premnagar, Nanda Chawki, twenty students beautified the center by painting and writing slogans on the walls. Their work was highly appreciated by the Department. Our staff contributed a day's salary to the Chief Minister Relief Fund.

In collaboration with NIEPVD, our students took part in an inclusive project of poster designing on poetries of Maha Kavi Shri Surya Kant Tripathi Nirala. Two of our students conducted a folk dance workshop with students of Model School (School for visually disabled students) for five days during their winter break.

Our students visited Sharp Memorial Blind school located at Rajpur Road, where they taught the inmates to draw.

Our children conducted a panel discussion on "Joy of Giving" where many students shared their experiences.

The batch of 2021 has taken up the Nanhi Kali Project. The batch collected funds and sponsored the education of six Nanhi Kali.

In association with Devbhoomi Jansewa Avam Sadbhavna Samiti, our students taught Tie and Dye to women which will help them in becoming self-reliant.

Throughout the year, the school have been contributed in many ways for community service

COVID protocols being followed in school premises

Highlighting our responsibility towards mother nature, students carried a plantation drive where all the students planted saplings in their homes to create awareness about importance of plants.

This year has been special in several ways, be it the Covid disruption or in terms of innovations, we reinvented ourselves as teachers for the preparation of tech driven classes or changing the very face of learning to virtual one. Just when we were looking forward to a whole new academic year Corona was found knocking at our doorstep.

Unfazed by the magnitude of this pandemic, the academic world kept its aspirations soaring high and the efforts of the UWS team even higher.

Oblivious of the length of the Pandemic, we put in our best efforts to kick start our online learning programme. The term started with a virtual Parent Orientation Programme to induct our newly admitted students into mainstream.

While the students were still at home, the following months saw the smooth conduct of the Annual election and investiture ceremony of the 14th Prefectorial Body using the innovative technology of virtual reality.

The school routine was being followed in full swing with regular online morning assemblies, academics transaction, scheduled activities and sports & games. Our students' academic progress was regularly tracked through proctored assessments and reports and parent- teacher meetings. With the first Units and Half Yearly Exams behind us, learning is going on full throttle. Board students are now gearing up for their pre-boards while others will be expecting their 2nd units later in the month of November. While the Academic programme of the school runs smoothly online, our highly motivated team of activity staff would not settle with just that!! Our scholastic and co-scholastic programmes swept the electronic and social media by storm with one event after another. They ensured to establish 'Virtual' as a new norm.

To name a few important events hosted and participated in by UWS this year are:

- In August 2019, 05 students participated in Inter School Science competition (Alpha), Competition of model making and presentation, organised by The Doon School and UWS won the 1st prize.
- In November 2019, 12 students participated in Indian Nationals – Space Settlement

Design Competition (INSSD), Research Planning, Model making and presentation, organised by INSSDC, Gurugram, they won and moved up to the Asian Regional level where in January they were adjudged as runner up.

- 03 students participated in Infinity Math Quiz – organized by Aditya Birla World Academy, Mumbai in January 2020. Where Saakshi More won the Bronze Certificate in Clash of Mathematics round.
- 07 students participated in debate, poster making and quiz organised by DIT University on the occasion of National Science Day in February 2020 and won 1st prize in poster making, 2nd prize in debate and poster making and 3rd prize in quiz.
- 50 students from classes IX, X, XI appeared in Pascal_Cayley_Fermat Contest respectively conducted by The CENTRE for EDUCATION in MATHEMATICS and COMPUTING (University of Waterloo). 7 girls have been awarded Distinction in their category. Kaashvi Garg, Arshita Mittal and Ritvi Jain received medals of honour as school toppers.

The entire school is being conducted online, right from Academic lessons to the school

Hawan, to sports and fitness programmes to several online workshops, webinars and talk shows. Driven by the values of trust, teamwork, ethics, responsibility and ownership our students and teachers stretch themselves over, beyond their call of duty and venture into ever new explorations and innovations. This year in the light of the pandemic – many such new opportunities came by our way and our students did not let go of the chance to showcase their talent and hone their multimedia skills.

- 12 students participated in an online ‘Best out of waste Competition’ organised by Waste Warriors in June, while 36 students participated in online ‘World Environment day Drawing Competition’ in July.
- 60 students participated in an online drawing competition on ‘Gandagi Mukh Bharat’ organised by Delhi Government.
- 17 students participated in Sriyanyam Online Inter School Art & Design Fest organised by Assam Valley School. Nandini Gattani of Grade XI secured the second position in ‘Photoshop senior’ event.
- 08 students participated in online Bamboo Festival-Comic strip Competition organised by Assam Valley School.

- Inter-House Music and Dance competition was the first of its kind on an online platform. The smooth conduct of this event was the result of tireless labour from the Music and Dance Department with the unstinted support if the ICT department under the ‘never say never’ guidance of the Dean of Activities.
- 25 schools participated in Spectrum which was conducted online. With twelve events and 270 participants. It was the maximum ever participation.
- Harmony - the 3rd edition of our Inter-school Music and Dance Competition was a resounding success. With an overwhelming participation from 19 schools and eminent judges from across the nation, Harmony was very well received. Shri Ram Centennial School, Dehradun, was the overall winner and Convent of Jesus & Mary, Dehradun, was the 1st Runners Up.

Sports and Life Skill Development Activities

The quality of the sports programme at school has been steadily improving year after year.

EXTRAMURAL SPORTS

The analysis of students' participation in extramural sports is a clear indication of our progress in sports. While in the year 2018-19 students participated in 47 sports events, in 2019-20 the number of events rose to 78. Providing opportunity to almost 59% students of the school to participate in at least one inter-school event in comparison to 41% of the students in 2018-19. A lot of credit for facilitating the student participations goes to our administrative department for their efforts in coordinating the students' movement.

In this pandemic ridden year the extramural sports participation has certainly reduced, yet our sports department has made efforts to conduct two inter-school events in the game of shooting and chess.

Our 1st Online Invitational Shooting Tournament was conducted from 18th to 22nd August, 2020. In this, 32 students from five states of UP, Haryana, Telangana, Maharashtra and Uttarakhand participated.

Our 1st Inter-School Online Invitational Chess tournament was conducted from 23rd to 24th October, 2020. It saw a participation of 61 students from 17 schools located in 10 states of the country.

PHYSICAL FITNESS ASSESSMENT

Our students have awakened to the importance of fitness. The efforts to educate students about their fitness status by providing objective feedback started in 2019-20 has continued in 2020-21. 02 students, Ziya Neelam and Nidha Ashraf, have reached the gold standards, 05 students have been able to reach the silver standards, while 18 students were able to cross the bronze standards. This year the school has instituted a new category of award to acknowledge individual improvements in fitness levels. The efforts of 19 students who have improved their fitness scores by 10 percentile have been recognised under the category of Acknowledgement of Substantial Improvement Awards.

ONLINE TALK SHOWS

Sports department has taken the lead in using the online platform to conduct 10 talk shows with players, coaches, nutritionists and psychologists to raise awareness of the students.

All in all, the pandemic has not dampened the sporting spirits of our students, rather it has provided all of us a challenge to be fitter and healthier. We plan to continue with our sports activities and develop healthy habits for life.

Workshops

Workshops are an effective way to help channelize, enrich and refresh one's knowledge, talent and qualities. The school believes in continuous professional development of staff through refresher courses and workshops.

- Mr. Vinay Pande, the then Principal of Lawrence School, Sanawar, conducted a Workshop on Theater in Education for the staff in January 2020.
- Mr. Rakshit Tandon, Director Executive – Council of Information Security and Cyber Security Consultant to Internet and Mobile Association of India, conducted a workshop on Cyber Safety and Security for the students and staff in January 2020.
- As part of the staff Professional Development Programme a workshop on 'Pastoral Care & Effective Communication' was conducted by Mrs. Jyotsna Brar in January 2020.
- Three staff members attended a three-day Science workshop organised by Hope Town Girls' School in collaboration with the Joy of Learning Foundation, New Delhi in January 2020.

- 12 members of the staff took up the Global Career Counsellor (GCC) Certification programme from UCLA Extension, which is approved by the University of California, Los Angeles.

In an endeavour of keeping constructively occupied through the pandemic, the school involved itself in several online pursuits.

We participated in around 20 webinars for students and teachers.

Being a residential school, staying away from our beloved students has been a tough prospect for us. Likewise staying away from school in the confines of the four walls of homes during lockdown has been a different experience for all our students. It at times becomes stressful. To mitigate the challenges emanating from the lockdown induced stress, our behavioral counsellor has regularly conducted group as well as individual counselling sessions with all classes. This was to provide emotional and behavioural support to the students on issues relating to stress. Section-wise online Group Sessions were conducted to address Examination Related Stress, coping strategies, relaxation exercises and time-management methods.

Our pastoral programme has been abreast as their Chalet In charges too in turn keep regular close contact with their students.

Keeping in mind the key importance of their higher studies and future career paths, the school has left no stone unturned. Regular career updates were sent to students who have received career guidance through various experts. Many virtual university visits were conducted by our career guidance cell. Students of classes IX to XII were exposed to regular talks and webinars, which were hosted by various Universities showcasing their academic programmes.

Administrative preparedness of School

The efficiency of any organization is gauged by its ability to achieve its desired goals with ease and success. This is only possible when all its stake holders come together to uphold a common purpose.

The pandemic has played spoilt sport, however, we at UWS are eager to have all our students back as soon as Government permits.

We have made adequate arrangements for the safety of our students:

- Strict control on entry and exit at the security gates.

- Regular sanitization of the entire campus.
- Thermal checking and hand sanitization drill is mandatory for anyone coming from outside.
- Information, help and hand sanitization dispensers are readily available at several vantage points.
- The school medical centre has been equipped with all the requisite equipment. Two isolation wards with curtains have been created.
- Tie-up with Max Hospital to provide any immediate rescue or help.
- We are in preparation to keep dedicated housekeeping staff attending to the Chalets.

All this and more to give our students a safe haven while they are at school.

Moving forward, I take this opportunity to thank our management, for their unstinted support through this trying and testing time. We shall ever be so grateful for the active and consistent support of the management, who are a constant source of encouragement and play a pivotal role in the growth of the School.

To the parents, all I can say is, it is because of the unfailing trust that you repose in us that the school is able to soar from strength to strength. We at UWS are working hard to give to its students, top of the line learning experience. It is with great humility and pleasure that I look forward to be able to serving each one of you in the coming years. How can I ever thank my enthusiastic colleagues both in the academics, co-curricular and sports department! As well as the 'behind the scene workers' the administrative department, whose untiring, unflinching support renders the school its impetus.

All this, while, not to miss out the life line, the soul of the school, its students, who give the school its very character and identity. Together we make an enviable family. My prayers be to God Almighty, that he keeps all of us safe in the palms of His hands.

On behalf of the entire Unison family, I wish you all, present here, all the very best for all your future endeavours!

May you stay safe in time to come. Keep your masks on and stay safely distant while the world combats the Corona virus, my prayers are with each one of you.

13 ANNUAL PRIZE

On 31st of October, 2020, the school proudly celebrated its 13th Annual Prize Distribution Function-2020, virtually. The day was marked with the celebration of the Annual Sports Meet 'Spardha', the Annual Art Exhibition and the Alumni Meet.

The Virtual Alumni Meet was a live conference this year with over two hundred attendees from across the globe. The foot-tapping song 'Summer of 69' originally by Bryan Adams, was performed by the school band.

CHIEF GUEST'S SPEECH

Ms. Chhavi Rajawat

I am delighted to be here amid you, unfortunately through the online mode. But I want to congratulate you all on the 13th Annual Prize Distribution Function and thank the honourable Principal, the staff, committee members and teachers for inviting me to be a part of this event. I would have loved to be there in person and get to meet all of you and have a dialogue which I love having especially with young women of our country in whom I see a lot of spirit, a lot of hope and the possibility of positive change that I feel our country needs. Of course, you have already been told about what I do and what I have been doing. I do not believe what I have done is anything unique, it is something that I feel that each one of us as a citizen of this nation, as a citizen of this globe should do towards the betterment of our society, of our country and of this one planet we all share called Mother Earth.

Well, my journey has been very interesting. I have been incredibly lucky to have been to amazing schools such as yourself; that is where I happen to know your Principal from.

I think we all are very privileged that we get the kind of education we do, we get the kind of opportunities and access to opportunities as we do and often we take that for granted, and often we allow for education and the degrees that we gather along the way to get into our heads and bring in a certain level of arrogance that I wish we would learn to shed. What we need to aspire towards is being a better human being and having the ability to see another human being as another being who deserves as much respect as we would want other people to give us.

Respect is not something that can be demanded. It is not something that you can extract out of other people as per your own will and fancy; you must earn it. It is only possible when you have the empathy and can see another as an equal and respect the other person just as that. I think that goes a long way in not just developing you as an individual but also in helping the society (to) see you as that individual who is empathetic, who has a soul, who is a human being and I hope my little message to you which primarily would emphasize on just that would make some sense. I personally believe that often, we as women, are told that sensitiveness is a sign of weakness. I disagree. For me, for example, I think that is one of the biggest assets that I have that allows me to do that kind of work that I have been doing since 2010 when I first became the Sarpanch of the village that my family hails from. It is a village that I have been familiar with ever since I was a little kid; it is a village that I have been going to since I was a little girl but when you take on the position of responsibility, you realize that the things are a lot graver than they are otherwise. We do tend to see things in superficiality. And I hate to say this but I think our generation is more of an internet savvy generation and because of that, I think, we have somewhere stopped going into the depths of understanding, what the topic is about or why a certain person or a certain community in the society behaves the way they behave. I do not believe we can generalize or we should generalize but it is important to try and understand and see things from another person's perspective. I think the biggest education for an individual is not the kind of education that you receive by rote learning. It is not through books alone but it is the exposure and it is through observation within our own homes where we are observing our elders, our parents and learning from everyone even if it is a street urchin.

I think my message really would also be to always remain a student, to have the willingness to learn from everyone that your life crosses paths with at any given point of time. It is important to stretch beyond your comfort zone. It is quite easy to try and fit into what the society or what other people or peers or colleagues expect of you. Often, it is their own notions and ideas of certain things but which may not necessarily be your own. So, try and figure out what it is you want to do, try, and figure out what your passion is and work towards achieving that. When I say work towards it, I would also like to point out and I am hoping that we have some parents who are listening as well that yes, friends do know you well, your teachers know you better as well and often will guide you but sometimes, especially when the guidance is coming from parents, it is often their own dreams that they wish to see fulfilled through their children and that's where it is important to voice your own opinions, to voice your own choices, your own dreams and do so as someone who is just sharing her own ideas across the table with other people. You do not have to get aggressive to get things done. Yes, there is a need to sometimes be assertive but aggression is not necessarily the only way to get your way out or through things or to achieve what

Yes, there is a need to sometimes be assertive but aggression is not necessarily the only way to get your way out or through things or to achieve what you want to achieve. It, often, is through collaborations that can happen through dialogues and I would encourage your parents to also have a chat with their daughters to understand what it is they want to do and make life easier by guiding them and finding the appropriate solutions or inputs that could get their daughters to choose the line or the sector that they wish to do.

As students, I think, one also must understand that if sometimes there is a lack of understanding, it could also perhaps be because there are certain avenues, certain sectors which the older generation is not necessarily familiar with. Therefore, do your homework and then have those dialogues. However, more importantly, I will just say try not to just follow others blindly and do not always chase money as that is not the solution to satisfy yourself or your soul; it is something that is needed to survive in the current day and time but it is not the only thing and do not lose yourself. It is important to know who you are, to be comfortable in your own skin and when you can do that, you will be happy and when you yourself are happy, people around you will also be happy because you are going to exuberate that joy that you witness in your life and tomorrow when you all start working. Just remember that you come from privileged backgrounds. It is best to try and help as many people as you can and the joy that you will see in doing that is far more than any other thing or at least that is my own personal experience that I would like to share with you. Of course, I could go on but I would not want to take too much of your time and given the fact that I am not really having a two-way conversation, this really is not that even half as much fun.

At the end, I would like to invite all of you to come to my village where now I have entered the education sector. I am trying to help the girls from underprivileged backgrounds in rural areas to join a girls' college that I am now running in the village but I have been the suffrage for ten years in the hope that I can come close to providing them some opportunities that you and I have been very lucky to have had access to. So, join me and I do hope to get to meet, if not all of you, some of you in person and to hear from you. I am sure Ms. Divya would and could share my email-id with any one of you who would be interested in staying in touch. If you think I can be of any guidance to you at any point of time, do not hesitate to reach out. All the best to all of you and God bless! I will end with that and thank you all once again. I would also like to take this opportunity and of course, considering it to be a huge privilege, I would like to release the Unison World School's yearbook 2020, Quintessence. Thanks once again!

Communication leads to community, that is, to understanding, intimacy and mutual valuing.

Investiture Ceremony

Prefectorial Body (Neutral)

15TH INVESTITURE CEREMONY

*"Every right implies responsibility, every opportunity an obligation,
every possession a duty."*

These sagacious words of John D Rockefeller echoed loud and clear during the 15th Investiture ceremony of newly elected Student Council of Unison World School on 31st July, 2021. With dignity and a sense of pride, the newly inducted prefectorial body accepted the badges and colours to uphold the motto of the school, 'Honour, Discipline and Integrity'. Great excitement prevailed since daybreak as the entire school awaited the event on a virtual platform.

The ceremony began with a prayer seeking the blessings of the Almighty. The outgoing Prefectorial Council 2020-2021 laid down office. The Office bearers were determined to accomplish new vistas and dispense their duties sincerely, fulfill the aspirations of their mentors. They were impeccably attired in their sashes and badges with host of responsibilities to be shouldered for the current session. The newly elected council was administered the oath by Ms. Divya Dwivedi, Principal, to uphold the moral ideals of the school, respect it and carry out their duties diligently and efficiently.

The newly elected School Head Girl, Aadya Ritesh Sood, addressed the school and the elected members promised to uphold the vision of the Founder Father to the best of their abilities. The ceremony concluded with the vote of thanks by the newly appointed Vice Head Girl followed by the National Anthem.

HEAD GIRL'S SPEECH

Good afternoon to one and all present here. It is indeed an honour to be addressing you as the newly appointed Head Girl of Unison World School on the occasion of the 15th Investiture Ceremony.

I would like to begin by thanking Madam Principal for those inspiring words. They will guide us and lead us on the correct path in our journey for perfection. Thank you so much ma'am.

For the last 5 years, as an audience, I have listened to some of the most experienced speakers give insights into the experiences they have had and the lessons they have learnt. Even though each of these speeches have been different in terms of subject and theme, all of them invariably carried some important message and have significantly contributed in shaping my ideas, opinions, thoughts and actions.

I start my tenure with my head full of dreams and my heart full of hopes. Our former head girl once told me, "Once you are there, you'll know what to do." And she was right, but I know that I won't be able to do it alone. All of us will work together and rise together. It won't just be I leading the change, or my fellow prefects. It will be 'us' leading the change. Though we are a part of the prefectorial body, we are no different from you. We will always be a part of you, a friend to you and a teammate to you.

Unison is no Hogwarts then what is it that makes it special? It is the bond that all of us share, not only students but also the teachers. Let us all start a new era of learning. Let's reframe sentences like “it’s too tough”, “it’s too much”, “I can’t do it”, and replace them with “I’ll try”, “I’ll work hard”, and “I’ll be able to do it”. Once you start motivating yourself, there’s no turning back.

From what I have experienced at school, I believe that an Uthena is a person who is so adaptive, that she can pick up a conversation with both, a remote member of a tribal group and a CEO of an eminent multinational company.

She is so aware that she can understand and empathize with both, a poverty-stricken community living in the slums and a famous movie star whose movie has not done well in the box office. An be so accommodative that she can enjoy a meal at the humble dwellings of the labourer who works at her factory and at the same time relish a thirteen-course meal at a five-star hotel in the most sophisticated manner. An Uthena is a person who is both gentle and stern, both straightforward and diplomatic, both a leader and a follower.

Let me ask you, why is India such a rich country? Well, in terms of culture, at least. It is because the rulers have carried forward what their predecessors left for them, and they made changes of their own. The culture of a place is what defines it, so let’s build a culture that defines Unison. Like we know Tuesday means Rajma-Chawal, let’s create a trademark for the school. Let’s leave a mark everywhere we go, and let’s create an identity that says ‘Unison’.

I hail from a very small town and live in a village. Yes, a typical one with birds chirping at 4 o’clock and cows mooing at 5 in the morning. My roots lie there, and I shall never forget them. Similarly, my roots lie in Unison, and I shall never forget them, too. I treat my home and Unison the same way, and I urge you to do the same. Treat the school with the greatest amount of love and sincerity that you have and see what the school will do for you.

Xenex has left a legacy for us to carry on, and it is our duty to do that. As the senior-most batch, we will continue the Nanhi Kali Project, and undertake a variety of other initiatives to give you opportunities you deserve.

It will be foolish of me not to acknowledge those who have been instrumental in making me what I am today. And all those without whose love, support and guidance, I wouldn't even have learnt how to dream. It is not easy to express my gratitude in mere words, but I will still try.

Madam Principal and Madam Vice Principal, thank you for teaching me to hold my head high even in the face of adversity. To all my teachers, I express my gratitude for having guided me all these years and reposing your faith in my ability despite having let you down on many occasions. Lastly, a big thank you to my parents, without whose willingness to send me to a boarding school, none of this would have happened. Uthenas, I leave you with one last advice: be your true selves fearlessly and never refrain from asking questions.

"Bragging about yourself violates the norms of modesty and politeness - and if you were really competent, your work would speak for itself. "

~ Adam Grant

Becoming the Daffodil House Prefect (2021-22) has been an eye-opener. Only on bearing the flag did I realize that being a prefect is not just about collecting names for the competitions and wearing a badge. It is beyond that I could surmise before I was elected as a Prefect. The badge that adorns my uniform is a reminder of responsibilities I need to shoulder and the expectations that I need to meet. Since my early years in this school, I had dreamt of screaming "Daffodil House, eyes right!", while leading the front row of the march past. Now, when I have the chance to head it, I feel more grateful than proud. I am thankful to every student and teacher of the house who trust me and regard me capable of upholding the glory of the house. I daily listen to myriads of perspectives before making crucial decisions that are in the interest of the house. I now know that one should always cling on to hope and remain optimistic against all odds.

We have had our own downtimes which made us feel as if we could no longer keep up but we remained undaunted. Important lessons of life were learnt in the most remarkable ways.

In my tenure, due to Covid-19, most of the sessions were held online but that could not bridle the endless dreams of Daffodil House and standing up to its motto of 'Modesty'.

Annual Report

*"In character, in manner, in style, in all things, the supreme excellence is simplicity."
- Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.*

"When I held up the house flag, squinting in the sun, leading a contingent of 36 girls of Jasmine House, I knew this is what all the toiling was for; for the weight of the house flag."

The Academic Session of 2020-21 saw a major change in work dynamics in all the spheres of our school. We steadily shifted to digital mode and our school successfully organized several online Inter-House events. My journey with Jasmine House started in July 2020 when I was elected as the Vice Prefect, I have seen the rapid yet stable growth of my house and am indeed immensely proud of leading it.

Our house has varying potentials in all fields; we stood first in many Fine Arts, Performing Arts, Literary and Sports Competitions viz., Inter House Epic Digital Painting, Epic Traditional Painting Shadow Puppetry, Solo Western Singing, Inter House Epic Digital Painting, Epic Traditional Painting, Shadow Puppetry, Solo Western Singing, Inter House Science Conference, Double Leg Rope Jumps Competition. Our house has performed equally well in Inter House Bol Padanth, AIPPM, Western Dance, Solo Bhajan, Plank Walk up Competition and the list goes on. I have seen both individual and collective development throughout my tenure. The members of the house have strived hard to meet deadlines being in the comfort of their homes. They have taken up tremendous responsibility to ensure maximum productivity. There were days when we performed poorly but not once did we think that we lacked in potential. As they say, “Doubt kills more dreams than failure ever will.” We faltered numerous times, but we also made sure we got back stronger. There was indisputable coordination among the prefects of the house, and its members which made this term a resounding success. We are on a road of improvement, and I can certainly say with pride that Jasmine House is moving towards glory. This experience of serving the house enabled me to discover the joy and efficiency of teamwork. The thought of graduating and not belonging to my house anymore fills me with sorrow; working for the house, meeting deadlines, coordinating with people had become my way of life. I shall always be eternally grateful to the teachers and students alike for the trust they placed in me and for their constant help throughout my journey.

Annual Report

"When pure sincerity forms within, it is outwardly realised in other people's hearts."

- Lao Tzu

The session 2020-21 was unlike any other. Everything shifted to an online mode and we all were in the comfort of our homes. Despite the challenge, we didn't fall short of enthusiasm and worked hard for all competitions and activities. Orchid House toiled throughout the session, nothing could balk our determination and confidence. We live up to our motto 'sincerity'. The tireless dedication and efforts of the students won many laurels. Boldly facing numerous challenges, we made sure to learn and grow with every victory and each failure.

The toil began with literary competitions, and we secured the first position in AIPPM, digital poster making (IT), Storytelling (IT), online presentation making, psychology competition, Vedic Maths quiz and Desarrollo de Productos. Orchid House has many talented artists with immense creativity. They never shy away from trying and giving their best in each endeavour. Some of our merits include the first position in doll making, wall magazine, landscape painting, puppet show, and watercolor painting. We bagged the second place in shadow storytelling and traditional painting.

The girls proved the strength in their sinews when they defeated their opponents in sports, claiming the first position in pranayam and single leg balance on toes. They stood second in cross country run, single leg sideways jump, double leg rope jump and ball bounce on wall. They also won laurels in the field of performing arts. We had the honour of standing first in classical dance, bhajan singing and second in patriotic singing and solo light music singing. I am proud of every member of the house and for the contribution which each has made. We are unique, and together, we make a magnificent team.

The team spirit and an immortal desire to win has helped Orchid House grow and so have I grown with it. I am immensely grateful to everyone who deemed me worthy of this post. Leading this house has been an exciting and enriching experience and I know it will reach greater heights with every passing session.

Annual Report

*"The key of persistence will open up any door that has been closed by resistance."
- John Dilleme*

The greatest glory of Tulip House lies not in never falling but in rising every time we fall. Last year Tulip House showed its never-say-die spirit by winning the most coveted Cock House Trophy. For a few years the performance of the house was inconsistent which gave the impetus to win and not to lose heart. Every error became a lesson for us. Learning from our mistakes, we ameliorated our efforts. Never had I imagined before to be trusted with seminal role of a leader. I realized that leadership is not a checklist and all the boxes do not have to be ticked. One needs to have nerves of steel to face the daily challenges that it poses. Taking up the responsibility of the house as a prefect, pushed me to the edge of my best capabilities. We, the members of Tulip House, have high imagination and creativity. The house excelled in almost all the spheres and the students, with the support of the House teachers, put in their maximum efforts. Tulip House has been consistently working hard and winning in sports like hockey and volleyball. The house also secured the first position in Inter-house Plank Walk, Hindi and English dramatics, Hindi debate, Semi Classical Singing, Inter-house Patriotic Singing as well as solo Western Dance Competition. Tulip House again fixed its flag by winning sports Olympics this year and standing first in the cross country in all three categories. The girls were second in Hindi Elocution, Classical Dance and Inter-house Bhramari Competition. Tulip House is determined to improve its performance in Inter-house march-past and Inter-house basketball.

We are highly indebted to our Principal and the School Management for reposing faith in us. I extend my sincerest thanks to my Tulip House family for its co-operation and support. I lack words to thank everyone enough for their involvement and willingness to work for the house. We strive to reach the pinnacle of success once again next year.

Hoonar Hooda
Prefect, Tulip House

Expanding Horizons

STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAMME 2021

Unison World School strives to carve out its students as global citizens. In an endeavour to continue our long-standing relationship with our International Exchange partners and to continue to give our students a global exposure, despite the tough circumstances, the first ever Virtual Student Exchange Programme between Unison World School and Rangi Ruru Girls' School, Christchurch, New Zealand, took place from November 2, 2020 to November 12, 2020. A group of eight students, four from each school, participated in this programme.

The first day began with an ice breaking session where the girls were made to play Bingo to help them know each other, feel comfortable and establish bonds of friendship. Through interesting activities, the students of both the schools interacted with each other. By merely spending two hours a day, the girls began to learn the culture and tradition of each other.

UWS girls were engaged in various workshops on Maori language and culture, melodious Maori singing, the flora and fauna of New Zealand, exclusive cuisine of the country. This was reciprocated by the girls of Unison World School who conducted workshops on Indian cooking, tradition and culture, Hindi language, Indian music and dance, Indian Art and virtual sight-seeing which also included a virtual tour of the Taj Mahal.

The girls also discussed different ways of community service adopted by both the schools. It was a perfect way to introduce the girls of both the schools to a diverse culture. They all found lifelong friends who would always be there on the other side of the world to welcome them.

The ten-day long programme concluded with an exchange of love of knowledge and learning, an invaluable experience for both the groups.

Confronting Covid 19

"Victory is not won in miles but in inches. Win a little now, hold your ground, and later win a little more."

~ Louis L'Amour.

While Covid 19 was staring in the face and disrupting lives, the world waited with bated breath for some magic-formula to bale them out of the crisis. Finally, all the prayers were answered and the first Covid 19 vaccine was developed. The nation launched its biggest vaccination drive to combat the pandemic and as responsible citizens, we too at Unison World School, started the vaccination drive.

The school, with the purpose to ensure safety and wellbeing of its staff and their families, organised a vaccination camp on campus. The first dose of the vaccine was administered to over hundred people on 4 June, 2021 and on 28th August, 2021, several people were administered the second dose of the vaccine. No stone was left unturned to ensure the safety of the people on campus. All Covid protocols were stringently followed.

Small efforts lead to a great success. UWS will continue to contribute in this fight against Covid 19 till it is defeated and life returns to its good old 'normal' once again.

INTERNATIONAL DIMENSION IN SCHOOLS 2020-2023

On 22nd January, 2021, Unison World School received The International Dimension in Schools accreditation from the British Council.

International Dimension in Schools is a bench-marking scheme that accredits schools as having an outstanding level of support for nurturing global citizenship in young people and enriching teaching and learning.

It is a three-year accreditation focusing on the implementation of an international dimension in a school's curriculum. Unison World School has received it for the year 2010-13, 2014-17, 2017-2020, and again for the year 2020-2023.

Reminiscence

Unison will always be the place I learned to realise my potential and decide what I wish to pursue in the future. This home taught me values, gave me memories and allowed me to meet peers who I firmly believe will chart an illustrious history wherever they choose to embark. The school will forever remain the institution that gave me opportunities I could never envision until a few years ago, that today has made me all I am, and will continue to impact all I will be.

Roopal Tulsani

If your ears are dear to you, never aspire to get a dorm in the middle block.
Radhiha Bansal

I still cannot understand the buzz about Paneer and the Butter Naan; it has always been the Rajma-Chawal for me.

forget the rest, and someday will find that these have been the best of times.

Khushi Malpani

For the last time, it is Bhaati not Bhatti

Ashwinaa Bhaati

Still stretching.....
Disha Nagpal

Some days were worth getting up early and taking a head wash.
Prapti Gupta

From Priti Ma'am's
"Girls" to Mona Ma'am's
"Ladies", from bickering in the corridors to making all these memories, it saddens my heart to leave the doors of Unison.

Sweet jam and bitter coffee, the ideal UWS survival kit.

I am still standing here.

Tanisha Bajaj

When your hair will need a makeover, you will miss me the most.

The ghost you all wondered about, it was I running around the hostels.

Kriti Kedia

In these 2 years, all I did was master the ART of getting two chocolate tarts.
