Founder Chairman, Unison Group

(22nd September, 1951 - 23rd February, 2009)

FOUNDER'S VISION

Unison World School is an edifice of faith. It is the crystallisation of the dream of our Founder Chairman, Late Shri Naveen Agarwal Ji. He was a great visionary with tremendous personal charisma. He possessed profound wisdom and nobility that always stood the test of time. He pioneered the Unison Group's involvement in education. He was greatly inspired by the words of Mahatma Gandhi; 'When you educate a boy, you educate an individual, but when you educate a girl, you educate a family'. He sought to bring about holistic development in each student and make her 'Sarva Gunn Sampann' so that she learns to strike a balance between her personal and professional life. His vision encompassed:

- To make Unison World School, a continuously evolving and learning community of empowered young minds and staff by creating synergy through mutual exchange of ideas and thoughts.
- To create endowed global citizens who think creatively and laterally; beyond the regular and those who are self-motivated and self-directed.
- To impart world-class education by providing a balance of academic, aesthetic, artistic, and social opportunities thereby encouraging the student to lift her aspirations to the highest level of capabilities and interests.
- To create a safe and supportive environment that involves each student in a wide range of learning experiences.
- To create new benchmarks in value-based education that blends modern outlook with a rich value system.

A FLORAL TRIBUTE TO OUR FOUNDER FATHER

On the solemn occasion of our visionary Founder Chairman Late Shri Naveen Agarwal Ji's 70th Birth Anniversary, a special prayer meeting was held at Unison World School on September 22nd, 2021.

Sri Naveen Agarwal Ji, our founder father, was born in a middle-class family on September 22, 1951, and passed away on February 23, 2009. He was a great visionary with a lot of charisma. He possessed profound wisdom, nobility, and humility, all of which have stood the test of time. He has spawned a lineage that only responds to claims of devotion to an educational tradition that inspires and empowers all. He authorised ground-breaking innovations in Uttarakhand's technical education history.

Carrying on his invaluable legacy, the Uthenas sincerely uphold the founder father's vision of setting new standards in the field of value-based education by fusing a modern outlook with a rich value system and creating synergy through mutual exchange of ideas and thoughts.

During the prayer ceremony, the school Vice Head Girl Yashashvi Desai shared the Founder Father's Vision, thereafter a short earnest prayer was read, and the prayer lamp was lit in memory of the Founder Chairman by Ms. Divya Dwivedi (Principal), Dr. Praveen Dwivedi (Vice Principal), and Col. # DREAM CATCHERS

"The distance between dreams and reality is called discipline."

At school one invariably gets to hear the banter of kids with an occasional remark talking of "How successful he or she is, or some people are really carved out to be winners."

And then one wonders, what is success? How is it measured? Who is successful? How can success be acquired? Why can't everyone be successful? What is the secret ingredient to success? Why are there some who are on the forefront of everything, while others unable to get the sweet taste of victory? Are these individuals intrinsically gifted with the Midas touch or is there more to it than meets the eye? Well, the answer to this barrage of queries cannot be a simple one. We all dream and aspire to be successful in every endeavour of our lives. And yes, it could mean differently for individuals, depending upon what they seek. For some the attainment of fame or wealth could mean success, while for others, it would be the outcome of an effort or fulfilment of a desired purpose; it could be something as simple as academic success like improving your marks or being able to walk after a long ailment.

Champions are driven by purpose with a strong sense of self belief. Working backward, with the affirmation, that you have already achieved your desired outcome shall propel that sense of purpose and lead to success.

Your objective may be big or small, short term or a life goal, making small targets and achieving them gradually, disciplining yourself in the process with your best effort would help fulfil your aspirations. Your vision needs to be focused; eyes on the prize – like that of Arjuna of Mahabharata fixated on the eye of the moving fish in water, coupled with rigorous, training & practice and an unflinching will to succeed, works wonders. When you feel you have completed the task and nothing more can be done, treat that as your starting point and don't let yourself be discouraged, it is now, that you need to start polishing your work!

Success like everything else in this world, comes at a cost, the cost of overcoming your complacency, inertia, or fear; for unless you show up at the starting line, you cannot even fathom to finish. One must push one's limits and be greedy to do more get more, be more and become more. It is all about being more resilient. Ask anyone who goes to the gym – the only way to grow your muscle is to work it to the point of its failure (the point where the muscle cannot move anymore) because only then the muscle would recover and respond to lift heavier than it used to do.

The success of Vineeta Singh, founder of the cosmetic brand Sugar, suggests that nurturing your passion with a sense of self belief is the way to grow. Her story goes to confirm how she turned down a Rs. 1 crore campus placement package, to follow her passion. Though the progress was slow initially, but Sugar has been one of the fastest growing companies of our times. It has clocked Rs. 100+ crores worth of revenue within 5 years of its inception. There are inspiring journeys of such winners, who have accomplished much in life – the Nykaa Founder Falguni Nayar – India's richest, self-made woman. Starting 2012, she reached at this position within 10 years, she ventured from being an investment banker to an entrepreneur, taking gradual and disciplined strides. Her story is not a cliched from rags to riches one; rather one of well-structured plans and deliberated decision making.

Rightly said, fear kills more dreams than failure does. There would be risks entailed, but who has ever gained without facing fears? There would be challenges. Bystanders and hurdles would distract you, then again there would be fear of failure, fear of people sitting in judgement, but winners need to stay focused, on track, they should keep their horse blinders on to overcome it all.

In this cozy little hamlet of Unison World School, every day, I meet starry eyed students, each in pursuit of her dreams, each writing her own story of success. Some of them have found their passion while others are enroute, advancing on the right path.

Best wishes, dear students, go confidently in the direction of your dreams, live the life you have imagined, this is your chance to define your destiny, make your choice wisely and choose to be on the winning side.

God bless!

After a rigorous evaluation process, QS I-GAUGE has awarded DIT University an overall Diamond rating for setting a global benchmark in offering online education to its students. UWS too has challenged itself for this audit and ratings.

- According to the Times School Survey 2021 Unison World School has been ranked the 2nd best Girls' Residential School in North India.
- The Education World India School Ranking 2020-21 has declared UWS as #3 Girls' Boarding School in India.

International Exchange Programmes

The world is increasingly becoming border-less, and we believe that our girls should have an appreciation of global affairs and be able to function comfortably in any part of the world. To give our students an international perspective, every year we send a certain percentage of them for exchange programmes and educational excursions and tours overseas to countries like New Zealand, Australia, UK, Switzerland and US.

We have direct Exchange Programs with many schools where our students spend anything from a fortnight to a month overseas. As a reciprocal gesture, we host students from such schools.

Though the past one and half years have been restricted travel. We continue our long-standing relationship with our International Exchange partners and continue to give our students a global exposure, we had our first ever Virtual Exchange with Rangi Rangi Ruru Girls' School, Christchurch, New Zealand from 2nd to 12th of November 2020. Four girls each from both th schools participated in this programme.

Community Service

At UWS, though we give a lot of importance to our students being able to appreciate science, technology, and modernization, we ensure that it is tempered with the ageless and timeless values of compassion and care. It's about inculcating and nurturing changes that lead to a better world for everyone while maintaining the health of our planet. UWS is committed to teaching and practicing Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

With the intention of building our Athenas as more empathetic individuals, our school social service committee continuously strives to better itself.

Chief Guest's Speech

Padam Shri Dr. Yogi Aeron

Namaste everyone!

I can deliver my thoughts better in Hindi. I am sure you are interested in the subject, not in the language.

I would like to tell you that our country has a population of about 130 crore people. I think about 13-crore people of your age would be in the country, but only you are privileged to be studying in an esteemed institution like Unison. I congratulate the management, and the teaching faculty who work and strive to improve your abilities. You must understand that you're lucky to study at such a remarkable institution.

If I go back to my childhood, (when I was) of your age, I used to study at a village school. I walked barefoot, as I had no slippers. From that status, I had never dreamt that such schools exist where you are studying. You deserve compliments.

I would like to warn you about one thing. Children of the same parentage attain different levels of success. Lal Bahadur Shastri were twelve siblings, but it was only he who became the Prime minister of the country. You must remember that no matter how good your school is, your individual capacity is of extreme importance. Never compromise, this is just the beginning of your journey, children. If I have reached here from that level, you are already beginning from a very high level. Your success should be like 'sky is the limit'. Some of you would scale such heights that you would set up another grand institution like this one. Do not compromise! Continue enhancing your capabilities.

Secondly, I would like to tell you all, never try to copy others. You are syndromes of your own, syndrome means 'collective characteristics' which vary for all. For example, when skin gets burnt, we need to graft another in its place, to shield the body from all the viruses and harmful bacteria present in this environment. So, you must understand that when our skin gets burnt, we have to graft new skin there, as fully burnt skin will never develop. Lack of skin as a cover will lead to bacterial infection in our protein-rich body. If we transplant someone else's skin in its place, on identifying it as foreign, the body will stop nourishing it. The patch of the skin of the donor will shed off in a few days. Which means that we all are individuals (and must) never copy others. All will progress differently. I am sure you will progress immensely.

I have witnessed your talent, your energy level. I am awestruck. I have been visiting different countries but after seeing the immense talent that the management and staff here have developed in you, I am amazed. My home is a minute's drive from here, I have been living there for forty years now, and surprisingly, I have been unaware of this fact.

Despite being from such a background, I have been doing plastic surgery for fifty years, now. When I came to Dehradun for the first time, I found that this city had no plastic surgeons. The only city where I could find a plastic surgeon was Delhi. Despite having a degree, I went to many places and remained jobless as, in those days, there was no department of plastic surgery. Therefore, I remained unemployed for a long period of time. I survived on financial aid from my father. It was he who paid my bills, but I did not lose heart. I went to many other places, around 150 km radius of Dehradun, met the doctors to make them aware that I could perform surgery, told them to give me a chance to do it without payment. Children, it took me a long time to convince them. Today, I have hundred techniques, which are original, they are different from all others. I am trying to get them published.

I am the director of an NGO 'Research', the base of which is Stanford University. They have their outlet here called The Outreach Centre, and one of the best is in Dehradun. A team of fifteen doctors visits here from America and provides free service and stays at its own expense. The government of Uttarakhand publicizes it in the state, gathers patients to be treated by the surgeons. This made me realise that if such affluent Americans come to serve people in my country, why shouldn't I. So, gradually I started this mission.

There is so much poverty in our hills, think for once, how many people can benefit from your talent. If your talent is only for a single individual or a family, then that is a misuse of your talent. Therefore, you must use it as effectively as you can. I'm always trying to treat a large number of patients. At present, Uttarakhand has more than 100 plastic surgeons including me. I got my job at Doon Hospital which was much needed as I was married. Honestly speaking, I lived like a pauper, and learned plastic surgery. When I came to Dehradun, no one was aware of plastic surgery, I could not find operation theaters, instruments, or patients. So, I left the job but persevered diligently. So, (I am) from zero to this, and you are already above 50 percent. Always remember this.

I would like to add that never think about what others are saying or what they will say (for you). Don't bother. If you have talent, manifest it in your actions, you walk on the right path and don't copy others. Everyone has a different DNA, even siblings have a different DNA that is why work according to yourself. Let nobody guide you as you are different from others. My suggestion to you is to identify your talent and never compromise, results are never instant. There are patients I have been treating for around 4 years but I never compromised. People say I am such an accomplished doctor but rearing rabbits, planting trees. But no one could change me and today, my venture 'Jungle-Mangal' is in the Guinness book of world records and my items of topiary are the world's best topiary items.

Talented and capable people like you, are beyond my imagination. The background that I am from, this is beyond my imagination. The ones who are guiding such proficient students and nourishing them, cannot be ordinary people. So, you must never compromise, try new things and never copy others. We are all different and never worry about what others would think.

I am very glad and humbled to have received such high acclaim from you. I will not deny the fact that there are other good institutions, but you are fortunate to be here at Unison, you have innumerable opportunities. I witnessed your talent and surely it was no less than any talent of international level. I am very proud that I have an institution like Unison in the place I live. This world depends upon five percent of people and not on the other 95 percent. You are among those five percent of the people of the world.

Enhance your talent, you should have the biggest canvas on which you can paint. Your performance depends on how large the area you are involved in is. So, Jungle Mangal is open to you. I will be proud to say that Jungle Mangal is affiliated to an institution like Unison World School.

Address by The Head Girl

Sanvi Kapoor
Head Girl

A very good afternoon to Madam Principal, Sir Vice Principal, Deans, teachers, and my dear Uthenas. Standing here before you today, as the 16th Head girl of the school is an honour beyond words.

I have waited 6 years to be the head girl, to wear this sash, hold the school flag and deliver this speech, but as I stand here before you today, I can positively say that as amazing as having reached my goal is, the real achievement was the journey that brought me here. Every single day, I was faced with a new mountain, and on some days the mountain was me. Every single day I wanted to make the mountain move. I was successful on some occasions while I miserably failed on others. Irrespective, every mountain was a learning experience. Standing here today, I can attest to the fact that it is not the Head Girl's badge but the amalgamation of all these experiences that is the real reward.

The night before the result of the election was announced, I stood in front of the head girl board once again as I had done 6 years ago as an 11-year-old new student and I stared at the names of all those who came before me and I was reminded of dialogue by professor John Keating from the movie, "Dead Poet's Society".

"They're not that different from you, are they? Same haircuts. Full of hormones, just like you. Invincible, just like you feel. The world is their oyster. They believe they're destined for great things, just like many of you, their eyes are full of hope, just like you. Did they wait until it was too late to make from their lives even one iota of what they were capable of? Because you see ladies, these young women are now fertilizing daffodils. But if you listen attentively, you can hear them whisper their legacy to you. Carpe diem. Seize the day, girls. Make your lives extraordinary. Because we are food for worms. Because believe it or not, every one of us in this room will one day stop breathing, turn cold and die." So, all we have is now. Live your 'now'. Run that extra mile, hug your friend for a few seconds longer, eat that third serving of dessert, and make your lives extraordinary."

A little fun fact: I didn't want to apply to be Vice Head Girl back in grade 11. Why? You might wonder. It was because I was terrified. What if I didn't become the Vice Head Girl?

What if I was laughed at? What if I didn't get what I wanted? How would I ever deal with that? I talked about my apprehensions to my mother, and I remember her telling me, that not applying meant that I was accepting defeat without even trying and that is the coward's way out. If that day, last year, I had let my fear and paranoia hold me back, I wouldn't be standing here today. Allowing your fear to dictate your life is the biggest mistake you could possibly make. To quote one of my dearest friends, "Fear is nothing but a lens". It is a lens that distorts your vision. Muster up the courage to remove the lens. It is the only way you will grow into who you want to be.

To conclude, I would like to reiterate what someone who I truly admire, said at this very podium: The loudest of voices have somewhere deep down a lot of unheard expressions. To all those loud voices, I see you. I hear you. All 20 of us standing up here, we hear you and we will amplify your voice. So, I ask all of you to put your faith in us.

The background is a blurred view of wooden bookshelves filled with books, creating a warm, academic atmosphere. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the book cover and the skin of the hand.

DAFFODIL HOUSE REPORT

"The awareness of our own strength makes us modest."

Paul Cezanne

Daffodils might appear to simply be delicate buds chasing after the ethereal rays of the sun, but it encompasses millions of epithets within themselves. It has droplets of dew dispersing vigour and exuberance. It blossoms in the tender nurturing of the light, but it perseveres in the dark. The students of Daffodil House are a testament to these attributes and strive to excel even in the face of adversity. We are an amalgamation of the idiosyncrasies of individuals who work as a community.

The House has acted as our pillar of strength. It is not just a House full of girls striving to be the best, it is a family where we learn ethics and lessons of life. We learn to be there for each other and support them through difficulties. We are individuals with different ideas and experiences, yet we work in unison and stand united.

In 2015, when I first joined the school, I saw the former prefects motivating and lifting everyone's spirits throughout the school year to put in their best efforts in all their endeavours. Seeing them work committedly, I decided to take a leaf out of their book. I too wanted to lead this house on the path of perseverance and glory.

Daffodil House inculcates the morals of discipline, respect, honour, and modesty among its members. It gives me immense pleasure and pride in saying that Daffodil House has come first in various competitions like the Inter House Mathematics Quiz, Squash league, Table Tennis league, Folk Dance, and many more.

Daffodil House is not just about competing and winning, it is about the firmness of purpose in everything we do and being appreciative. It gives equal opportunities to every individual to realize their potential.

Daffodil House is open to new innovative ideas and a space for everyone to feel safe. It is through our hardships and efforts put together that Daffodil House is what it is today.

The hue of a daffodil is perceived as transcendent when it reaches one's iris. Its striking yellow is the genesis of an inherent feeling of ebullience. The students of Daffodil House are my "yellow."

JASMINE HOUSE REPORT

Jasmine is a symbol of elegance, grace, amiability, and delicacy. It stands for respect, fortune, and innocence. All of Jasmine's characteristics have been ingrained in the students of Jasmine House, and they strive to uphold its ideals.

The dynamics of work in all areas of our school underwent a significant transformation during the academic year 2021-2022. I witnessed a steady growth of my House, and I am incredibly happy to be its leader. Our House displayed excellence in diverse abilities across the board as we won numerous competitions in the Fine Arts, Performing Arts, Literature, and Sports, including the Cross-Country Competition, Swimming Competition, Inter House Storyteller Competition, Inter House Hindi Debate, Poster Making Competition, Classical Vocal Competition, Semi-Classical Dance Competition, Sculpture Making.

Our House performed equally well in Inter House Yoga Competition, Skating Competition, Tabla and Bol-Padhant, MFL Quiz, Declamation Competition, Duet Guitar, Tagore Song Competition, Volleyball, and a lot more.

During my tenure, members of the House have worked very hard to meet the deadlines and took up huge responsibility to ensure maximum productivity. There were days when we didn't perform well, but every time we felt defeated, we come back stronger, because we believe 'Failure defeats losers, failure inspires winners.' The coordination among the House Prefects was unassailable and their contribution made the session a massive success. We are improving and I can say it with pride that Jasmine House is stronger and better than it ever was.

Shouldering the House responsibility helped me a lot to grow as an individual. I acquired the skill of time management and can work under a lot of pressure, but it has mainly taught me what it feels like to be a part of a family of 97 girls.

The House excelled in almost every area and the students, with the help of the House mentors, put in extra efforts in bringing the overall trophy to the House. Jasmine House members are always striving to be the best.

ORCHID HOUSE REPORT

The session 2021-2022 was a year full of mixed emotions, uncertainty, and confidence as well that we would prove ourselves as the best House in the school. From the comfort of our homes, we came back to our boarding life. Surely, as expected, we gave our best to all the competitions and different activities in which we participated after we joined the school. We were serene and peaceful throughout the hard times. Thereby, proving ourselves true to our motto 'SERENITY'. Orchid House worked tirelessly with complete dedication and sincere efforts. We had our share of challenges which we faced prudently and learnt from our mistakes. These learnings made us stronger and more confident!

To begin with, in Literary competitions, the House secured 1st position in the Entrepreneurship, Senior and Junior category. Apart from this, the House brought laurels in many other literary activities like Digital presentation, English declamation, English debate, and Hindi as well as English dramatics, to name a few.

Not only in literary events had Orchid House students proved themselves, but they proved their mettle in Arts as well!

We secured 1st position in Poster making, Textile designing, Wall magazine, Photography and Rangoli competition. We bagged 2nd position in Web Designing, Digital art - Junior category and Diya-making competition as well.

The above results certainly prove that all the participants from the House exhibited exemplary performance confidently. We also secured 1st position in the Guitar duet and Bhajan competition. We were adjudged as the first runner-up in Tabla and Bol-Padmant and Semi Classical Dance competition. The participants displayed their excellent skills and rejuvenated the culture of Spain through the Flamenco dance. Moreover, they also displayed and highlighted India's rich culture, diversity, and unity by aesthetically performing 'Lavani' the Maharashtrian form of dance.

In sports, the students showcased their athletic expertise by actively participating in various sports activities like Hockey, Basketball, Squash, Table- Tennis, Lawn Tennis, Chess, and Badminton.

I am thrilled and delighted for each member of the House for the contribution which made us stand in the light! Every member is treasured for her involvement and engagement in all the activities and competitions. Together, we make an amazing team, we have worked in unity and will always continue to be the best team. It has been an exciting and enriching journey which helped me grow with the House. I am confident that this House will reach greater heights with each passing year.

TULIP HOUSE REPORT

'It's not about winning or losing a competition; it's about beating the doubt from within yourself and knowing at the end of each day you are one step closer to your goals.'

-Jonathan Horton

With these words of Jonathan Horton, we started the session 2021-2022 aspiring to win the Cock House Trophy. This desire to win was the driving force of the Tulip House and it would always be the intent behind our actions.

Sometimes late at night, I stare at the stars, these gigantic balls of gas a million light years away, shining bright, have been burning bright for years and their light has travelled years to reach us, to reach me. I have a penchant for things much larger than me, the multitude of galaxies swirling around in the universe, the ocean- I enjoy feeling like an infinitesimal part of something much larger. That is what Tulip house represents to me- something much larger than the world itself.

Tulip House is an amalgamation of all my best memories, and it holds a special place in my heart and will be special forever.

The members of the Tulip House brought glory to the House by winning the Cock-House Trophy last year for the second time in a row. There were many competitions conducted throughout the session 2021-22. The girls won and lost but did not lose their spirit to try again. The dancing divas of the House won the 1st position in IH International Folk Dance Competition and 2nd position in IH Indian Folk Dance, bagged the first position in Inter-House Classical Indian Choir, Solo Keyboards, Solo Tabla, Tagore Singing and Nukkad Natak.

The continuous efforts of the girls for perfection were the reason that Tulip House won the 1st position in Inter-House Scratch, Madhubani, Dastangoi and Sculpture Competition.

The athletes of the House won the Sports Trophy for the session 2021-22, Inter House March Past Competition twice in this session, Inter House Kho-Kho League, Cross-country run, Junior Olympics, Yoga and Skating in both junior and senior category.

Tulip House also won the Academic Trophy for the session 2021-22 and bagged the first position in Inter House Hindi Extempore Competition and second position in Inter House Manifesto, Presentation Competition, Digital Poster and MFL Quiz.

These achievements were not possible without the support of the Madam Principal, Sir Vice-Principal, the House coordinator, tutors of the House and the core members i.e the students without whom the Tulip House family is incomplete.

REMINISCENCE

I am so proud to be called an Uthena. Unison has provided me with excellent exposure across various platforms. All my teachers, matrons, and sahika didis have been super supportive. They always encouraged me to push boundaries and rise above expectations. I cherish each memory that I made at Unison and miss every bit of it.

Shyla

I miss the homeliness and oneness I felt in school.
I miss how all of us were like one big family together.

Used to wear 'A' earrings because never have I ever secured a 'B'.

Ananya Agarwal (1220)

If I share my white paint with you,
just know that I love you.

Gauri Barnwal

I don't like Rajma
Chawal, will the school accept me?

Chhavi Dawani

Unison will always remind me of all the beautiful things life can throw at you.

Ruchhika Agarwal

What can I say about school? I laughed. I cried. It was fun.

Riya Singhal

I used to cherish the food a lot, especially when we all used to have dinner together in groups.

Gungun

I miss the mess food
the most.

Siya Gupta

The thing which I miss about the school is the Graphics Lab and Sumonjit Sir !!! Half of my time in school was spent there only.

Nandini Gattani

I miss the fun times that I had with the ones that I spent my entire day with.

Eva

I really miss the school community and the support we had, to grow ourselves into better students.

Ayoniza

Unison has always been close to my heart. The Dehradun skies and the food are the two things I miss most about Unison.

Prabpreet

I miss everything about school, from curry chawal to my friends to maths class, everything.

Suhani

The things that I miss about school are the amazing sunsets, my friends and rajma rice.

Rhea

Doing mischief and being called to Principal Ma'am's office.

Anjini Godara

There's a lot that I miss about school, but the DJ nights, Sunday Chole Bhature and chatting with the teachers sometimes tops it all.

Annaya (960)

I miss bunking classes and the warmth of the sun in the basketball court.

Humisha

School wasn't all sunshine and rainbows.
But because I met wonderful people there, I wouldn't change it for the world.

Jaanvi Bhartiya

The late-night gossip and semi-cooked Maggi have a very special place in my heart.
My memory of the unauthorized stroll in the periphery will last a lifetime.

Vanshika Poddar

I miss the people there.
I had a support system that consisted of all people from teachers to my friends, to housekeeping and guard didis. I miss classes and surprisingly, food at school especially rajma chawal. Also, I miss the safety
I felt there.

during the morning PT!"

Mahak Agarwal

"I miss everything about Unison. Not a day passes by when I don't think about sitting with my friends in the dining hall during meals while laughing over silly jokes or missing the rigorous band practices before any Inter-School Competition or assembling quickly in the quadrangle at exact 9.25 A.M. for hawan on Saturdays.

I miss all of it!"

Ardas Kaur Padam

A close-up photograph of a colorful spider, likely a Golden Orb Weaver, on its intricate web. The spider has a yellow and black body with orange and black legs. The web is covered in numerous small, glistening dew drops. The background is a soft, out-of-focus green, suggesting a natural outdoor setting.
